Whiskies

SCOTLAND

SPEYSIDE

Speyside whisky can be classified as falling into two categories. At one end of the spectrum there are light, grassy, 'lunchtime whiskies', at the other end lie the rich, sweet, sherried 'dinnertime whiskies'.

IRELAND

After nearly being taxed to extinction Irish whiskey is making a huge comeback with more and more distilleries popping up all over the emerald isle. Peat is rarely used and triple distillation is standard, which makes Irish whiskey smooth and very palatable to all.
